

Freshness Counts

Freshness counts in the quality of the food we serve, that's why we start every day preparing our food from scratch. Our taco meat is prepared fresh daily starting with a high quality beef and blended with our proven seasoning. Our vegetables and cheese are shredded and sliced by hand every day. Our red and green sauces are handmade using the original recipes from 1976. Our chips are hand cut and fried along with our taco shells every morning. Our burgers are hand pressed every day to bring you that freshness that can only be found in a hand-pressed burger.

We had many choices when selecting fajita meats and decided to serve a high quality fajita meat and we believe the quality shows. While there are many options for Tex-Mex, we feel that our fresh ingredients and handmade taste will come through when you try our food.

We Deliver!
